

The Forgotten Letter

Logline: An old envelope is found tucked inside a book. As the character reads, the words inside begin to reshape their perception of the present.

Script:

INT. LIBRARY – DAY

The character flips through a dusty book. An envelope falls out.

They open the envelope carefully. Inside is a folded letter.

Close-up of the letter's faded writing. The character reads silently.

Flash of memory or imagination – blurred images play in their mind.

They close their eyes, holding the letter against their chest.

FADE OUT.

Shot List:

Scene	Shot Type	Description	Notes
1	Close-Up	Hands flip through a book, envelope falls out.
2	Medium	Character opens envelope carefully.
3	Close-Up	The faded letter is revealed.
4	POV	Character reads letter silently.
5	Montage	Blurred images/memories appear.
6	Medium	Character holds letter to chest, emotional.

Notes:
